

MBC Team Members

Angie Marchant

Partner

Angie offers over 20 years of employee benefit expertise in client management, benefit consulting and operational management. As a founding partner of MBC, she has extensive experience in building client relationships, driving growth and service expectations, and orchestrating success for Millennium's book of business.

At Millennium, Angie oversees the development of long-term benefit strategies, financial account management plans, communication strategies, and service relationships with vendors. With her creativity and impeccable organization, Angie drives well-executed strategies for all clients ensuring that their business goals are achieved.

She lives in East Cobb with her husband Mike and is blessed to be the mom of two young ladies. Angie's leisure activities include scrapbooking, playing tennis, and spending time with her family.

Angela Colwart

Financial Manager

Contributing her perspective from the employer side of the business, Angela offers 20 years of expertise in the areas of broker consulting and strategic benefit management and administration.

Angela's core competencies include strategic financial analysis and detail in benefit administration.

At Millennium, Angela's focus is financial management and analysis. Her responsibilities include month-to-month reporting, forecasting, and projections of the benefits plans. Her background in system conversions and implementation, benefit compliance, and acquisition and divestiture also serves our client base.

Angela lives in the northern suburbs of Cobb County with her husband Chris and two children. Angela is active in her church, volunteers at the children's school and is a work-out enthusiast.

Eva Giang

Financial Assistant

Eva's ability and experience with financial and data analysis allow her to be an excellent support for the Financial Manager at MBC. With a degree in economics from Emory University, she was previously a fixed asset manager for an Atlanta-based company. At Millennium, she assists in preparing reporting packages, manages RFPs, Non-Discrimination Testing, eligibility implementation, and has conducted several crucial audits for clients.

Keith Tallmadge

Partner

As a founding partner of MBC, Keith has expertise in sales, benefit consulting and financial management. Keith has a 20+ year history of successful relationships in the benefit arena.

At Millennium, Keith takes the lead role in vision forecasting, cultivating new business and establishing a solid financial basis for our clients' benefit plans. With his extensive knowledge of the various financial arrangements and legal implications surrounding corporate benefit packages, Keith ensures that MBC's clients have a solid financial foundation on which to build their benefit plan. He is also skilled at setting long-term goals, both for MBC and its clients.

Keith currently resides in Atlanta with his wife. He is the father of three grown boys. The Tallmadges are actively involved in the Dunwoody community.

In her free time, Eva enjoys working out, dancing, reading, sewing, and doing volunteer work. She is also a certified Personal Trainer through the International Sports Sciences Association (ISSA) as well as certified in First Aid/CPR/AED.

Tonya Long

Client Service Manager

At Millennium, Tonya's role is to help serve and manage the day-to-day needs of our clients. She strives to be an extension of their benefit team and is often first point of contact for employees with service issues. Tonya manages implementation, open enrollment, and benefits administration for our clients and works to ensure that the needs and concerns of employers and their employees are addressed.

Tonya is able to contribute her perspective from the employer side of the business. She has experience in all aspects of human resources with expertise in employee relations, business strategy, and benefits administration. She is quick to build relationships with diverse groups of people at all business levels.

Tonya and her boyfriend Alex live in the Westside area of Atlanta where they enjoy all of the wonderful restaurants and shops. Tonya and Alex cheer for rival SEC teams (Tonya for Tennessee and Alex for Georgia) and they enjoy friendly competition each fall. Tonya enjoys working out, running, and spending time with friends and family.

MBC Team Members

Jennifer Whitmire

Communications Manager

Jennifer brings over 15 years of experience in the managed care and communications arenas to her role at Millennium. She focuses on the importance of educating employees about their benefits by using a variety of mediums to reach the audience. Jennifer works with clients to develop educational materials for employees, executives or any other sub-group within an organization. Jennifer also assists with clients' HIPPA compliance, Medicare Part D filing and other regulatory issues.

Jennifer lives in the outskirts of Athens, Georgia with her husband Brook and two school-aged children. She volunteers regularly at her children's school and enjoys Jazzercise and cooking.

Millennium Benefits Consulting – Strategic Partners

Millennium has established several relationships that provide additional services and expertise outside the realm of our core benefit consulting services. These strategic partners and their services are explained below. Contact Keith Tallmadge for further information about these relationships and the value they can bring to your organization.

Palmer and Cay

Property-liability and Risk Management Services

Millennium Benefits Consulting has established a strategic partnership with the Atlanta-based insurance brokerage firm, Palmer and Cay. Through this relationship, MBC can offer their clients property-liability and risk management consulting. Palmer and Cay uses a similar consultative approach as MBC to assess insurance needs and create custom approaches and products to meet the needs of their clients.

A sampling of services provided by Palmer and Cay include:

- General property and liability insurance
- General automobile and umbrella insurance
- D&O insurance
- Worker's compensation
- Cyber liability and crime insurance

Mark Raymond

Retirement Plans and Specialized Benefit Plans

Mark Raymond is a part of the MBC team, offering expertise in the realm of retirement plans and specialized benefits. Mark works with businesses to help them gain a unique understanding of retirement plans, including: plan design, negotiations with vendors, implementation and employer and employee education. Mark also offers experience with discrimination testing. Specifically, he can create plans that allow highly compensated employees to contribute more to a corporate retirement while the organization maintains a fair plan for the entire employee population.

Tom Studer

Retiree Medical Benefits

Tom Studer has joined the Millennium Team to provide expertise in the area of retiree medical benefits. He has an extensive background in insurance, employee compensation and benefits, and contract management. Tom is a highly-skilled professional in this field, with 30 years of experience helping clients assess and make decisions regarding their benefit options. Specially, "Coach Tom" can help individuals or groups within a company who are approaching retiree age:

- Clearly understand benefits under Medicare
- Learn what Medicare Advantage Plans provide
- Understand why Medicare Supplements are different
- Learn about Prescription Drug ("Medicare Part D") Plans